Lab Project:

The class will be divided into teams. Each team will be assigned to a pod in the Information technology Networking Lab (Davis 214). You should also submit an evaluation form on your team members with the lab project.

Etiquette:

Please come to class on-time since class is disturbed by constant late arrivals. Turn off all cell phones. Talking or other disruptions in class can result in being asked to leave.

Honor Code:

By accepting admission to Radford University, each student makes a commitment to understand, support, and abide by the University Honor Code without compromise or exception. Violations of academic integrity will not be tolerated. This class will be conducted in strict observance of the Honor Code. Refer to your Student Handbook for details. In this class the student is expected to do all out of class programming assignments on their own, without help from other students. All violations will be reported. All assignments are to be done independently unless I specifically say otherwise. The only exception to this is, of course, the lab project.

Special Assistance:

Students seeking academic accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act must register with the Center for Accessibility Services (CAS) to determine eligibility. Students qualified for academic accommodations will receive accommodation letters and should meet with each course professor during office hours, to review and discuss accommodations. For more information, call 540-831-6350 or visit http://www.radford.edu/content/cas/home.html.
